

Topic: Assignment Criteria

Certainly! Here's an example breakdown of assignment criteria with detailed headings:

1. Assignment Title:

- Clearly state the title or topic of the assignment.

2. Format:

- Specify the required format, such as essay, report, presentation, etc.

3. Word Count:

- Provide the minimum and maximum word count for the assignment.

4. Structure:

- Outline the expected structure, including sections like introduction, body, conclusion, and any specific headings or subheadings.

5. References:

- Clarify the citation style (e.g., APA, MLA) and specify the minimum number of required sources.

6. Instructions:

- List specific instructions or questions that must be addressed within the assignment.

7. Deadline:

- Clearly indicate the submission deadline, including date and time.

8. Grading Criteria:

- Define the criteria on which the assignment will be evaluated, covering aspects such as content, organization, research, and overall quality.

Feel free to adapt these headings based on your specific assignment requirements. If you have a particular assignment in mind, providing more details would allow for more personalized guidance.